We apply the charging policy in line with section 457 of the Educational Act. This allows charges to be made for residential school trips and artefacts made in school and taken home.

Voluntary Contributions

Where the school cannot levy charges and it is not possible to make these additional activities within the resources ordinarily available to the school, the school may request or invite parents to make a contribution towards the cost of the trip or activity. Pupils will not be treated differently according to whether or not their parents have made a contribution in response to the request or invitation. However, where there are not enough voluntary contributions to the activity possible, then it will not take place

School trips and visits

Day Trips: No charge will be made for activities outside school hours that are part of the National Curriculum or religious education, or that form an essential part of the syllabus for an approved examination.

Residential trips, – Essential: for residential trips which are essential to the National Curriculum, statutory RE or in preparation for prescribed examinations a charge will be levied for board and lodging. This cost will be the cost that is charged to the school.

Non-essential For all other activities outside school hours, a charge up to the cost of the activity will be levied.

Materials & Textbooks

Where a pupil or parent wishes to retain items produced as a result of art, craft and design, or design and technology, a charge may be levied for the cost of the materials used. In the case of Food Technology, pupils usually provide their own ingredients, Textbooks are provided free of charge, but in some subjects, additional revision guides are available, for which a charge is made.

The Headteacher, Finance Committee or Governing Body may levy charges for miscellaneous services up to the cost of providing such services e.g. for providing a copy of an OFSTED report.

Refunds of charges or voluntary contributions received will be made in the following circumstances:

- Cancellations of the trip or activities due to circumstances beyond the students control.

Remission Policy

The Headteacher, Finance Committee or Governing Body may decide not to levy charges in respect of a particular activity, if it feels it is reasonable in the circumstances. Complete remission of any charges for the board and lodging for a residential trip will be made if a parent is in receipt of:

- Job seekers allowance (income based)
- Child tax credit, but are not entitled to working tax credit and your annual income (as assessed by the Inland Revenue) does not exceed £16.190.
- Support under part VI of the immigration and Asylum act 1999.
- The Guaranteed element of the Pension credit.

Where the parent does not receive an eligible benefit the school will nonetheless consider sympathetically request for assistance in the phasing of contributions, provided that all such phased contributions have been made by the time the trip or event takes place.
