

Strike action: Wednesday 1st February 2023

Dear families,

A national strike by the NEU has been called for Wednesday 1st February.

I have carefully assessed the likely impact of this strike action on Leytonstone School. Unfortunately, following this careful assessment, and based upon the number of staff likely to be absent from work, we have determined that the school will be closed to most pupils on this day.

Parents and carers of most pupils will need to make alternative childcare provision for Wednesday 1st February 2023.

Parents and carers of pupils for whom the school will be open will receive a separate communication from the school.

Attached is a communication from the school's NEU group outlining this union's reasoning behind taking strike action.

This inconvenience is outside the control of the school but I would nonetheless like to apologise for this.

Yours sincerely

Jessica McQuaid
Head Teacher
