

History Learning Journey

GCSE is an essential subject for any student looking to develop a deeper understanding of the world around them. After GCSE you could go on to study History further at A level or for a BTEC diploma. You could also take other humanities courses in Government and Politics or Law.

Injuries and treatments WW1	Weimar and Nazi Germany	Weimar and Nazi Germany	Revision	Examinations	Onwards to College
Evidence	Mock Exams Paper One Paper Two	Mock Exam Paper Three	Recall Examination Practice	Paper One Paper Two Paper Three	Life Skills

The American West	The American West	Elizabethan England Paper Two	Elizabethan England Paper Two	Medicine through Time Paper One	Medicine through Time Paper One
Significance End of Unit Examination	Consequence Analytical narratives	End of Unit Examination	Causation Judgement	End of Unit Examination	Causation Judgement

Edexcel History

Migration to Britain through time	London, Leytonstone and the Blitz	Remembering the Holocaust	Conflict in the Middle East	The Fight for Rights in C20th Britain	Cultural change in C20th Britain
Change and continuity	Evidence	Interpretations	Consequences	Interpretations Evidence	Change and continuity

Extremism in the Interwar years	America in the 1920s	The First World War	Industrial Revolution	Transatlantic Slave Trade	The British Empire in India
Similarity and difference	Significance	Causation	Change and continuity	Evidence	Interpretations

A. Our school B. The Norman Conquest	Medieval Realms	Religious change in Tudor England	English Civil War and the Republic	Qing and Inca Empires	Revolutions: USA, France and Haiti
Causation	Similarity and difference	Change and continuity	Interpretations	Evidence	Significance

